To his EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM TRYON, ESQUIRE,
Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

May it please your EXCELLENCY,
THE Rector and Inhabitants of the City of New-York, in Communion of the Church of England, as by Law established, with great Sincerity congratulate your Excellency on your safe Arrival with your Lady and Family in this Province.

As our most gracious Sovereign has been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. JOHN EARL OF DUNMORE, our late worthy Governor, to the supreme Command of his ancient and loyal Dominion of Virginia, we most gratefully acknowledge his Majesty's paternal Goodness, who is ever anxious for the Welfare and Felicity of his Subjects, in nominating a Gentleman of your Excellency's distinguished Character, to succeed his Lordship in the Command of this Province.

WHEN we reflect upon your Excellency's extensive Abilities, Experience in public Affairs, and strict regard to the wholesome Laws of our Country, which are the only sure Basis of our civil Happiness; and in the Vindication of which, you have lately risked your valuable Life; we are confident that this loyal Province, under your wise Administration, will be prosperous and happy.

CONSIDERING the Virtue and Piety of our Royal Master, we cannot doubt but that you, Sir, his worthy Representative, will encourage the increase of true Religion—countenance and support the Established Church in this City —and protect us in the full Enjoyment of our invaluable Rights and Privileges.

MAY the Sovereign Ruler of all Events bless your Excellency with Health and Happiness.—may your Administration be applauded by the best of Kings,—and may you for many Years to come, have the Satisfaction of enjoying the sincere Esteem, Love, and Affection of a grateful People.

THESE, SIR, are the earnest Prayers, and the ardent Wishes of,

May it please your Excellency,
Your Excellency's most dutiful,
And most obedient Servants,

New-York, July
18, 1771.

To the Rector and Inhabitants of New-York, in Communion of the Church of England, as by Law established.

Gentlemen,
I THANK you for your very friendly Congratulation on my safe Arrival with my Family in this Government,— for the honourable Sentiments you entertain of my Endeavours for the public Service,—and for your good Wishes for my Prosperity in my present Administration.

I FEEL a lively Sense of Gratitude for his Majesty's most gracious Goodness in appointing me to succeed the Earl of DUNMORE in the Command of this Province; and I am sensible the nearer I can come up to his Lordship's truly honourable Principles, the more complete will be my Wishes to make a loyal People and Country, over whom I have now the Honour to preside, happy and flourishing.

You may be assured I shall make the true Interest of the Established Church in this City a peculiar Object of my Attention; and that I shall be zealous at all Times, as well to countenance and support the same, as to protect its Members in the full Enjoyment of their invaluable Rights and Privileges.

WM. TRYON.

Sunday last in the Forenoon, the Mayor and Corporation waited upon his Excellency Governor Tryon, at the Fort, from whence they escorted him to Trinity Church, where an excellent Sermon was preached by the Rev. Doctor Auchmuty.

WILLIAM TRYON, ESQUIRE,
Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America; Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The humble ADDRESS of the Minister, Elders and Deacons of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, in the City of New-York.

May it please your Excellency,
WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Minister, Elders and Deacons of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, of the City of New-York, beg Leave, with the greatest Sincerity, to congratulate your Excellency upon the safe Arrival of yourself and Family in this Province, to the Government of which our most gracious Sovereign has been pleased to appoint you.

The Members of the Dutch Church, having always distinguished themselves as dutiful and loyal Subjects to his Majesty and his august Predecessors, by a steady Adherence to the known Laws of the Land, have, in Consequence, from Time to Time, been favoured with particular Marks of the Royal Approbation, and protected in the full Enjoyment of their invaluable religious Rights and Privileges.

We therefore assure ourselves, from your Excellency's known Character, Zeal for, and Attachment to the Laws and Constitution of Great-Britain; that the Dutch Church, the most ancient in the Province, will always be favoured with your Countenance and Support.

We earnestly pray, that God may abundantly bless your Excellency, in your Person, Family and Government; that your Administration may meet with the Approbation of our most gracious Sovereign, and secure to you the Love and Esteem of a happy and grateful People.

We are, your Excellency's Most dutiful and obedient Servants,

Consistory-Children, New-York, July 18, 1771.

To the Minister, Elders and Deacons of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of the City of New-York.

Gentlemen,
IT is with much Satisfaction I receive your Congratulations on my Arrival with my Family in this Province; to the Government of which his Majesty has been most gra-tiously pleased to appoint me.

The particular Marks of Royal Favour and Approbation the Members of the Dutch Church, have, from Time to Time received from the Throne, I consider as so many honourable Testimonies due to their loyal and dutiful Behaviour to their Sovereign, and to their steady Adherence to the established Laws of the Land: Such laudable and uniform Conduct must always reflect Honour to your Society, draw down Protection from the Crown, and ensure to yourselves the full Enjoyment of your religious Rights and Liberties.

My Duty and Attention to my Royal Master, and to the Laws and Constitution of Great-Britain, will ever unite in me a desire to Countenance and protect the Members of the most ancient Dutch Church in this Province.

Accept, Gentlemen, my grateful Thanks for the Warmth with which you express your Sentiments for my Felicity; believe me, I shall esteem myself happy, if my Labours to promote the Welfare of this Country, shall merit the Approbation of the King, and some Share of Regard from a happy and grateful People.

WM. TRYON.

BERLIN, April 6.
BY the latest accounts from Poland, the grand Russian and Turkish armies still remained quiet in their respective winter quarters, the severity of the winter; and extreme backwardness of the season, not yet permitting them to take the field; and such is said to be the scarcity of forage and provisions throughout the whole country, especially in those parts which were the theatre of the war during the last campaign, that it is believed they will not be able to move or commence any military operation till towards the middle of next June.

LONDON, April 20. A Correspondent informs us, that lately at the Lord Mayor and Mr. Oliver were at dinner with Capt. M—and the rest of the officers in the Tower, according to invitation, Mr. Wilkes had occasion to wait on the Lord Mayor relative to some City Business, but was refused admittance by Capt. M—and his Lordship was obliged to leave his company upon that account. (See this explained in a former paper.)

The Kingfisher, Captain Tyson, from Maryland, foundered in going through the Needles; she drew six fathoms, but the ship and cargo are lost.

April 25. They write from Gibraltar, that some extraordinary incampments have been made by the Moors in the neighbourhood of Ceuta, on the Barbary coast.

Letters from Dublin inform, that the news of the imprisonment of the Lord Mayor and Mr. Oliver, was received there with universal consternation.

We hear that orders are given for paying off as high as the flue, in consequence of every thing being settled between France, Spain and our Court.

We are credibly informed, that the most lucrative branch of trade the citizens of Paris at this time have, is that clandestine one with England, which carries immense sums out of the kingdom, and flourishes the poor manufacturers.

April 27. His Majesty has been pleased, in consideration of the dearth of provisions, &c. to order that the deduc-tion of one shilling in the pound, which has been hitherto made by the Paymaster General of the Army from the pay of the foot soldiers, be remitted; as also the deduction to the Regimental Paymaster and Surgeon; the better to enable them to provide necessities.

The Gentlemen who retired from the Society at the London Tavern, have formed themselves into a Society. Every Member of the Society enters into an engagement, as the touchstone of his principles; to procure by his vote, in or out of Parliament, and by every other means, a bill to shorten the duration of Parliaments. They have adopted the subscriptions for Bingley and the Printers, which were the cause of the divisions in the late Society of Supporters of the Bill of Rights. Mr. Alderman Oliver is their Treasurer, and Mr. Boddington their Secretary. They do not desire any subscriptions from the Public, but mean to do what public good they can, entirely out of their own pockets. They have not even chosen a name; and intend only to be known by the good actions they may perform. They consist at present of about forty Members; and intend to be very careful whom they admit.

We hear that late on Saturday evening a Courier arrived from Madrid with a complete ratification of the convention between England and Spain—with a farther account, that the Courts of Versailles and Madrid have both actually begun to disarm, and lessen their naval as well as military armaments. Great-Britain, it is most certain, will follow the like method, instantly, agreeable to the example set her by the two other Courts, at her special instance and request. Nevertheless a respectable navy will be still kept in pay.—Upon a confused hint only of this intelligence, Stocks rose this day 1/2 and 3/4 cent.

The D— of C— has left Mrs. B—with an annuity of 300l. per ann. and is now engaged in an amour with a young lady in Hertfordshire.

Yesterday the third reading of the East-India Recruiting Bill came on according to order in the Lower Assembly, and after a debate thereon, the question was put, Whether the said Bill should be read a third time? The House divided, when there appeared 49 for it, and 49 against it; the number being equal, the Speaker declared for the ayes:— An amendment was afterwards moved for, and another debate arose, after which the question was put, Whether the Bill should pass? The House again divided, the ayes were 50, and the noes 51; and thus the Bill was lost by a majority of one.

Thursday about five o'clock, Mr. Serjeant Glynn presented to the Lower assembly the petition of Mr.
Allen, praying for justice against the Soldiers for the murder of his Son in St. George's-fields, on the 10th of May 1768. Mr. Serjeant Glynn moved, that the petition might be brought up to the table.
Lord North was against the motion, and said; the soldiers did no more than they were ordered to do, and that it was too late in the session for such an affair to come on: Besides, did they think that a man would surrender himself, who was charged with murder? Mr. Edmund Burke, was very warm on the occasion, and condemned, in very severe terms, the letter sent by the Lords Weymouth, and Barrington. Mr. Charles Fox said; that if ever he should attain the high honours held by those noblemen, he certainly should in the like circumstances take pattern by their letters. Sir Joseph Mawbey said he hoped that if that Honourable gentleman ever should arrive to such honours, he would retract his words, and take warning by those letters. Mr. Onflow threw out, that Allen's Son was engaged in a riot, and was busy in insulting the soldiers. The Petition sets forth, that the son of the Petitioner was not in the riot, but that it was another man, who made his escape from the soldiers. After a very long debate, which lasted till 11 o'clock, the question was put, whether the petition should be brought up; the room divided, Ayes 55; Noes 148.

April 30. An account of what passed in the Lower Room on Friday.

On Friday Mr. Sawbridge made a motion in the Lower Room for leave to bring in a bill to shorten the duration of Parliaments.
He shewed that this branch of the constitution had been established by our Saxon ancestors, at which time they had only been annual; that they were set aside for 120 years by the Normans; that on their revival they had continued of short duration (usually annually) till the reign of Henry VIII. who settling them never to expire

f. Darell,

To the Ministers, Elders and Deacons of the United Presbyterian Churches in the City of New-York, in Communion with the established Church of Scotland.

Gentlemen,
Your liberal sentiments of Loyalty to our most gracious Sovereign, afford me real satisfaction as your, unmerited regard to his Representative, and Congratulations on my safe Arrival with my Family, claim the Return of my sincere Acknowledgments.

I fear I may not obtain for you that Happiness you in Prospect form to yourselves, as you view in too favourable a Light, my Abilities, to fulfil the Duties of my Station, however, such as they are, they shall be cheerfully and faithfully employed to your Ease and Satisfaction.

The numerous Presbyterian Churches in this Colony, and particularly those in this City, shall constantly meet with my Countenance and Protection.

I shall be proud to follow the Example of my Noble and Right Honourable Predecessor, in giving Support to all your religious Rights and Privileges.

Your friendly Wishes and good Intentions towards me in my Administration, I embrace with Gratitude; as the Aid and Support of a free and affectionate People not only lightens the weighty Affairs of Government, but leads the Way, the most Honourable and certain, to obtain the Approbation of the Sovereign.

WM. TRYON.

WILLIAM TRYON, Esquire,
Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America; Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The humble ADDRESS of the Minister, Elders and Deacons, of the Reformed Protestant German Church of the City of New-York.

May it please your Excellency,
THE Minister, Elders and Deacons of the Reformed Protestant German Church of the City of New-York, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on your safe Arrival with your Lady and Family in this Colony, over which our most gracious Sovereign has been pleased to Honour you with the Chief Command.

Our Hearts glow with Sentiments of the warmest Gratitude on this recent Instance of his Majesty's parental regard to us his distant Subjects, in appointing a Person of your Excellency's amiable Character and extensive Knowledge in public Affairs, to represent his Royal Person; which gives us the strongest Hopes of the full Protection of our religious Rights and Privileges, under your Excellency's Administration.

Permit us to assure your Excellency of our invariable Attachment to his Majesty's Royal Person, Family and equal Government.

May that Providence which has of late so manifestly shewn itself in the Preservation of your Excellency, still continue to smile on you, your Connection and Administration.

Signed by Order of the Consistory, JOH. MICHE. KERN, V. D. M.
New-York, 15th July, 1777.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Gentlemen,
I THANK you for your loyal and friendly Address, and receive with Pleasure your Congratulations on the safe Arrival of myself and Family in this Colony, over which his Majesty has been most graciously pleased to appoint me to preside.

I shall be solicitous that your Expectations of the fullest Protection of your religious Rights and Liberties under my Administration, may meet with no Disappointment.

That Providence, which has so lately and so manifestly shewn itself in crowning with Success my Endeavours to preserve the invaluable Constitution of a Sister Colony, I trust, will guide and conduct me in my present Station.

WM. TRYON.

A Letter from Detroit of the 25th of May, says, "By Indians who are just now arrived Express from William Tucker, an Indian Trader, we have the disagreeable News, that the Sloop Beaver, which sailed from hence the 5th inst. for Niagara, is cast away upon the Rocks about 10 Leagues below Sandusky, and that Capt. Jacobson, his Crew, and ten Passengers, in all 15, have perished. The Barge was found after all smashed to Pieces, and a small Trunk with our Letters drove up on the Beach, many of them lost, and several others damaged and illegible: There was on board about £. 3000 in Peltry, and a large Quantity of Flour for Niagara."

We hear from Albany, that last Week Mr. John Constable, Surgeon and Practitioner of Physick, entered into Partnership with Mr. Latham, Surgeon to the King's (or 5th) Regiment of Foot, for the Practice of the Sutorian System of Inoculation, within the District of Schoenady Town, and the Mohawk River in the County of Albany.

WHEREAS John Schuyler, jun.

did make, and with his hand subscribe a certain writing bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, 1771; and published the same twelve weeks successively in Hugh Gaine's paper, entitled, the New-York Gazette, and the Weekly Mercury; and in John Holt's paper, entitled, the New-York Journal, or the General Advertiser, two of the public news-papers of this colony; which said writing was directed by the tenor thereof, to all persons interested in that several lots or parcels of land therein after mentioned; and did thereby give notice, that Volker P. Douw, and Peter Lansingh, of the city of Albany, and John McComb of Hopkiss, in the county of Albany, Esquires, persons not interested in the said lots or parcels of land, were appointed to make partition thereof, and that they would meet on Wednesday the 26th day of June, at the city hall of the city of Albany, to proceed to the partition of the said land; and did then and there require all persons interested therein to attend, then and there for that purpose, by themselves or by their attorneys. Now therefore, we the said Volker P. Douw, Peter Lansingh, and John McComb, commissioners, for appointed as aforesaid, do hereby signify our said appointment, and do give notice, that we will meet at the house of Johannes Daer, at Hopkiss, in the county aforesaid, on Tuesday the 27th day of August next, to proceed on the said partition; and we desire all persons concerned, to attend accordingly. Given under our hands at Albany, the 24th day of June, Annoque Domini, 1777. 89 92

To be sold cheap for Cash,

A Neat second-hand crane neck chariot and harness, almost as good as new; also fifteen thousand acres of land, being part of two tracts of land granted to Elkanah Deane, senior, and twenty nine others his associates in the year 1764, one half being part of Grand Isle, situate in Lake Champlain, and the other adjoining Colonel Christy's settlement, on the west bank of said Lake; the soil is exceeding rich and fertile, timbered chiefly with white oak, ash, beech, maple, butternut, and bass-wood; is good wheat and grass land, containing a large quantity of open meadow; sloop of fifty tons burthen can load at almost any part of the said shore, adjoining said lands, and from thence carry the produce to Crown Point, Montreal or Quebec. There are at present some families settled on said lands, which from their advantageous situation, are likely to settle as soon as any lands in that quarter; the timber being of great value to raft to Canada, from which there is a large bounty on the exportation of lumber of all kinds. The above lands will be sold in large or small quantities, as may best suit the buyer. For further particulars inquire of Elkanah and William Deane, at their Shop in Broad-Street, New-York—Where the Coachmaking trade is carried on in all its different branches, in the best manner, their work warranted, and sold cheap; we return our customers our unfeigned thanks; and are with due respect, gentlemen and ladies, your much obliged and very Obedient humble Servants, ELKANAH DEANE, WILLIAM DEANE. 89 92

PORT'S CORNER. GREATNESSES.

A heavenly Symped once asoft
A wondrous Symped Debate, This mighty secret to disclose,
What makes a mortal great?
Mars bluster'd forth, that Love of Arms Enrich'd the daring soul;
And Bacchus swore, the brightest Charms O'erflow'd the sparkling bowl;
That he who fill'd with generous Wine,
Could frolic, laugh, and sing,
Was far more rich, was more divine,
And greater than a King.
Apollo vow'd, with Music's Power, None other could compare;
But Love produc'd his golden show'r,
And fix'd true Greatness there.
Pallas, on Wisdom ever dear,
Heard gravely what had pass'd;
The Goddess came prepar'd to hear,
And silence broke at last:
Your Shower, she cry'd, will melt away,
Your Music lose its Charms;
Your sparkling Bowls will all decay,
And Rust o'erspread your Arms.
But Heaven-born Virtue knows not Change;
No Time dissolves her State;
To high Eternity she'll range, Tis she makes Mortals great.
